

Blindfolded, Not Blind

“The worst form of injustice is pretended justice”

Plato (attributed)

Those who swing the sword of justice unjustly to exact revenge and retribution against their political enemies will find that when the scales tip as they inevitably will the double-edged sword of Lady Justitia cuts just as sharply on the other edge.

The Lady of Justice is blindfolded but she is not blind.

